

Mellington Hall Hotel
The Jewel of the Marches

Access Statement
2008

The 1 mile drive with plenty of passing places will lead you to the front of the hotel.

There is a drop off point and plenty of parking. 8 wide stone steps with stone side rails on each side will lead you to a wide double door entrance. These steps at the front of the hall are well lit at night. There is no ramp to the front entrance.

At the rear entrance to the hotel there is a drop off point and limited parking.

The entrance has 2 small steps and is well lit at night.

Wheelchair access is located off the lawn via a path up a ramp to the decking area, then through the function room. This is situated at the rear of the hall.

This access is difficult if a marquee is situated on the lawn, the marquees are only erected 6 times a year. Please contact us prior to your visit so a member of staff will be able to assist you. There are no allocated bays but if you phone us in advance, we can cone an area to guarantee parking right outside the rear or front entrance.

The internal ground floor is level throughout. Accessible on the ground floor are all restaurants, function room, reception, bar area, comfortable seating area, quite lounge and unisex toilets with baby changing facilities.

Help with carrying your luggage in and out will be offered to you.

The reception desk is 1 metre high and is well lit.

The bar height is just over 1 metre and is well lit also.

The accommodation access is by a wide wooden staircase with banister. There are 7 steps to the first wide rest area then a further 10 steps to the 2nd rest area and a further 7 steps to the top of the stair case. The stairs are well lit.

There are No Lifts within the Hall.

Six of our ten accommodation rooms, including 2 suites (Mellington & Mainstone) and one of our family rooms (Priest Weston) can be found on the landing from the top of the staircase.

The other four rooms are accessible down 3 steps, all have direct dial telephones, remote control T.V., cordless kettles, some have walk in showers others have a shower over the bath.

The landing is well lit.

Assistance dogs are welcome.

Waitress and room service is available on request. Enlargements are available on request for all menus.
